

Carolbake.com | Carol's Crockpot Ranch Chicken

I'm all about the crockpot recipes! Whether you're working from home or heading into the office, a good crockpot recipe gives you the chance to enjoy the evening with your fam because dinner is done as soon as everyone walks through the door.

This week's Quick Family Recipe is especially easy... throw everything in the crockpot, sprinkle a ranch packet over it and go! If you are chopping up your own veggies, you can even prep them the night before to make your life even easier.

So get ready to wow your family with this recipe and also get ready to have a lot more time on your hands, because there isn't a lot of work with this one.

Let's jump in the kitchen together!

Ingredients:

- 3 Chicken Breast
- 4 - 6 Cups of Veggies (Ideas - Broccoli, Cauliflower, Squash, Zucchini, Onions, Red Potatoes)
- 1 Ranch Packet
- 3-4 Sprigs of Rosemary or Thyme

How to Make:

- Wash and chop your Veggies (or if you're in a time crunch, buy a tray of prepped veggies.)
- Now it's time to layer - Place veggies in the bottom of your crockpot.
- Lay chicken breasts over top of the veggies. I love cooking all my crockpot recipes like this - veggies on the bottom and protein slow cooked on top. As it cooks, the drippings from the chicken (or roast or whatever meat you are cooking) drips down into the veggies which gives the best flavor and makes everything taste soooo good!
- Sprinkle the ranch packet over the top of your chicken.
- Place sprigs of Rosemary or Thyme over the top.
- Cook on low for 4-6 hours or high for 3-4 hours.
- Enjoy! :)
